

Kevin,

I would once again like to thank you & the Dempsey Burdick Foundation for our daughter's beautiful headstone. It is perfect. She now has her very own mark in the world.

What you are providing for grieving families is amazing. During the worst time in their life you have blessed them with one less thing to stress over. You have brought us & others comfort during the darkest days of our lives.

I feel so blessed to have met you & your daughter Dempsey. I wish it could have been on different terms. I have watched her video several times & each time I cry for your family. She was so beautiful & so loved.

We lost our daughter Janessa on May 14th, 2009. I was 31 weeks pregnant. She was our second child. Her older brother was born in 2003.

I had a normal and complication free pregnancy until the day we lost her. You can watch her life story here: <http://video.yahoo.com/watch/5760094/15083045>

She was absolutely beautiful & looked so much like her big bro. I will never forget how she felt in my arms & her sweet smell. We kept her with us for 12 hours. When we decided to give her up to the nurse, those were the worst & most painful moments of our life. Taking a newborn baby from her mother's arms never to be returned is unnatural & unbearable.

Losing her devastated us. Every day is a challenge on how to learn to live again without her. We miss her & love her more than I can put down into words.

She has inspired me to give back for all the generosity that has been shown to us since losing her. I created a site Every Life Has A Story in memory of our daughter. It offers grieving parents a FREE memorial video of their child. I donate my time to help keep their child's memory alive. I also wanted a way to help keep our daughter's memory alive & spread awareness about pregnancy & infant loss. I have met the most loving and amazing families.

You can view the site here: <http://everylifehasastoryhome.blogspot.com/>

Once again, thank you for the beautiful stone for our daughter. And thank you on behalf of all the parents who sadly have to bury their child. As you know, there is no greater pain. Your foundation eases some of that.

Sincerely,

Malory & Jonathan Jimenez
