

Hi my name is Star Johnson and I'm needing some help. Please bear with me as I explain my situation. Thanks.

I'm a 28 year old female. I live in central Illinois my brother was born Feb. 16th 1979 and sadly he passed away in May of 1979. But what is even more sad is my parents could not afford and still cant afford him a head stone; and I think just as you precious daughter deserves her honor, I think so does my brother. Even though I never got to meet my older brother I still feel him around me and telling me things are going to be fine and I feel if the shoe was on the other foot he would do the same for me or at least I hope he would. Do you know how hard it is to live knowing he only has the marker the funeral home put up and you have tried helping buy one for him just to lose your money to medicine because your sick to? Please, I don't beg for much but this would take a load off my mind knowing he is getting the honor his little heart deserves. And I'm sorry for your loss with your daughter... please help me fill my dream of giving him peace knowing ill be able to find him, and again I thank you.

Your dearest friend,

Star Johnson
